

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not here at all,
just thought of us today.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

Richard Allen Davis, Jr. was born June 30, 1956, in Los Angeles, California to the late Richard Allen Davis, Sr. and Mae Evelyn Davis.

He was a graduate from Crenshaw High School and earned a degree in Performing Arts from U.S.C. His love of acting took him to New York where he was cast in several soap operas, plays and sitcoms.

Richard displayed his artistic abilities at an early age. He painted many family portraits and later did the illustrations for children's books.

Richard had a genuine love for others that will never be forgotten. His kindness and generosity had a way of making people feel good.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving mother, Mae Evelyn Willridge; one brother, Michael Jerome Davis; two sisters, Lolita (Peaches) Preston and Pamela Renee Hamilton; two nieces, Lakeesha R. Frazier and Shinhan L. Preston; two nephews, Michael J. Davis, Jr. and Anthony J. Hamilton; grandparents, Ousley and Ruth Lee; one uncle, Ousley Lee, Jr., long time friends, William Carnell and Ann Gerhardt, a host of good friends and loving relatives.

"We guide along the tides of time as swiftly as a racing river, and vanish as quickly as a dream.

Teach us to number our days and recognize how few they are; help us to spend them as we should."
